

The Christian Religion.
To the Editor of the Lexington Intelligencer,
Dear Sir:

I shall be obliged to you if you will publish the accompanying statement of Christian Doctrine and duty. It doesn't pretend to be by any means a complete or dogmatic statement of Christian truth or Christian living. It is only a popular summary of the fundamental Christian truths and duties; and, as such, has the approval of most of the Christian ministers now living in Lexington.

My object in asking the publication of this statement is to exhibit the essential unity of the Christian faith, and to show what evangelical preachers generally treat that people must believe and do in order to enter upon and continue in the Christian life, and then be fitted for service in Christian Heavenly kingdom.

Yours Sincerely,
E. C. GORDON.

Pastor Presbyterian Church.
ESSENTIAL TRUTHS OF THE CHRISTIAN RELIGION.

1. There is a God, the Creator and Upholder of the Universe.

2. All mankind are sinners and as such are under the condemnation of God's Law and liable to its penalty.

3. God has provided a salvation from sin and its penalty through the work of his eternally-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

4. In order to perform his work as a Savior from sin, our Lord Jesus Christ reveals to men the will of God concerning their salvation, makes an atonement for their sins and exercises authority in and over them as their Lord.

5. In order to perform his work as a Savior, our Lord Jesus Christ became a man, being born by a virgin woman by the power of God's Holy Spirit; lived a holy life on earth, died on the cross, rose from the dead, ascended to his Father's right hand, where he is made Head over all things for his Church.

6. By his Holy Spirit and word our Lord Jesus Christ so moves men as to persuade them to repent of their sins, to accept Him as their Savior and Lord, and thus become fitted for service in his Heavenly Kingdom.

7. In the appointed time our Lord Jesus Christ will return to the earth to raise the dead, to make a final separation between the righteous and the wicked, establishing the righteous in New Heaven and the New Earth and remanding the wicked to the place of eternal punishment.

THE CHIEF DUTIES OF THE CHRISTIAN LIFE.

1. Repentance, or the giving up of all known sin.

2. Faith, or sincere trust in our Lord Jesus Christ as a Savior from sin.

3. Public confession of faith in Christ and of loyalty to him in baptism.

4. Renewal and confirmation of baptismal vows in repeated attendance upon the Lord's Supper.

5. Diligent use of prayer and the holy Scriptures as means of growth in knowledge and spiritual strength.

6. Cordial support by contributions and personal effort of the God-appointed work of the Church in preaching the gospel of salvation from sin to every person on earth.

7. Constant endeavor to live a holy life, characterized by loving God with all the heart and our fellow men as ourselves.

Made Long Run.

The city fire department made one of the longest runs on record Wednesday evening about 6:40 o'clock, when they were called to save the home of Ed Law on 24th street, better known as Blue Ridge. The origin of blaze is supposed to have been due to an over heated flue setting fire to a box of matches which were placed just behind the stove pipe. The contents of the room were destroyed. The department made a splendid run, but arrived after the flames had been put out. The loss was small.

$10, 12.50 or $15

The situation is changed

We are showing the finest Overcoats at these conservative prices that we have ever offered.

There's nothing wanting in fabric, cut or tailoring. Don't think anybody could distinguish these excellent Overcoats from their more lofty associates.
